All payments must be turned into the treasurer and at that point a receipt for the payment will be distributed to the paying organization.

Article XI- Official Weeks and Reserve Dates

Section 1. Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to promote unity among the NPHC member organizations. It is to allow everyone an equal opportunity for exposure.

- A. Each active NPHC member organizations will be afforded one week (hereafter referred to as Official Weeks) and six days (hereafter referred to as Reserve Dates) during each academic year.
- B. Official Weeks and Reserve Dates will be respected by all organizations. No group shall have an event to coincide with the Founder's/Charter or Reserve Day of another. Special cases including formal rushes and informational meetings must be cleared by the organization's President and NPHC advisor three (3) days prior to the event. Extenuating circumstances will be ruled on by the NPHC advisor. If, however, a group has selected a reserve date and does not use it they are responsible for notifying the NPHC advisor and executive board three (3) days prior to the scheduled event. Extenuating circumstances may dictate a period of no less than five days at the discretion of the executive board. If they fail to do so, a fine of $100 will be imposed, and they will be last for date selection the following academic year.
- C. The assignment process of Official Weeks and Reserve Dates will take place during a President's meeting in the month of March for the upcoming academic year.
- D. In the case that an organization is not represented by collegiate members. The advisors or sponsoring Graduate Chapter must be notified for this meeting.

Section 2. Official Weeks

Official Weeks is the period of time that is designated for the observance of that organization's founding or charter date (although in most circumstances this is not possible). The specified period of any Official Week is defined as Sunday-Saturday. In the event that weeks cross, the involved member organizations will meet with the judicial board if a decision cannot be reached amongst themselves. There will be no official week held during the first three (3) weeks of each semester. The Weeks for the active NPHC member organizations are:

Alpha Phi Alpha-
Alpha Kappa Alpha-
Kappa Alpha Psi-
Omega Psi Phi-
Delta Sigma Theta-
Phi Beta Sigma-
Zeta Phi Beta-
Sigma Gamma Rho-
Iota Phi Theta-

Section 3. Reserve Dates

Reserve Dates are the six days that each chapter is able to specify for their activities. These four days will be specified by a lottery system.

- A. The order of the lottery pick will be determined by picking numbers in order of national founding dates; always starting with:
 1. Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc.
 2. Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc.
 3. Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc.
 4. Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc.
 5. Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.
 6. Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc.
 7. Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc.
 8. Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority, Inc.
 9. Iota Phi Theta Fraternity, Inc.
- B. After each eligible chapter has had an opportunity to select their first Reserve Date, each organization will again draw a number, which will determine the order in which they can select their second Reserve Date, this will continue until up to four reserved dates are chosen.
- C. If for some reason the first organization is unable to draw first (i.e. dues have not been paid), the second organization will select first.

Section 4. Open Dates

Open dates are to be defined as any day between Sunday thru Thursday (outside of an official week), that has not been previously reserved by another organization. These dates may include but are not limited to Educational Programming, Forums/ Seminars, Community Service and Fundraisers to be submitted and approved by the membership chair, who will in-turn add it to the official calendar. (It will be up to the executive board to assist in the approval of any questionable or undefined events.) Requests for open dates shall be sent to the Secretary at least three (3) days prior barring extenuating circumstances to the requested date. Approval of the event post three (3) days shall be approved at the discretion of the FSU-NPHC President and the secretary. An organization may treat Friday and Saturday as an open date if the event it is a Fundraiser, Community Service, or Membership related event.

- A. Multiple Organizations can have events on the same date barring that the time of the events do not overlap or conflict and if the date is not already a prior reserve date. Requests for all dates shall be sent to the Secretary at least three (3) days prior barring extenuating circumstances.

Section 5. Conflicts

Any member organization (or its members) found to solicit or advertise any event open to the public that conflicts with the Florida State University National Pan-Hellenic Council or a member affiliate will be referred to the Judicial Committee.

Section 6. Attendance

In the case that the Council has a reserved date and specified program, it is the duty of each affiliate member organization to be present at the said event. Events sanctioned by the Greek Life Office as mandatory, will in turn be mandatory within the NPHC.

- A. Attendance Requirement will be outlined as 50% of the chapter attendance for events requiring 50% of chapter participation or more within 15 minutes of the initial start time of the event.
- B. A member organization can petition the President for permission to not attend an NPHC sanctioned event, including Greek Life office events, given that the member organization has a legitimate conflict, and obtains approval from the FSU-NPHC President prior to the event.
- C. If approval is NOT obtained from the president, then each affiliate member organization will be represented at the said event. Representation shall consist of majority, which shall be present for the duration of the said event.
- D. If any member organization is found in violation of this requirement, they will be subject to fines if applicable.

Section 7. Sanctions

All member organizations must abide by the sanctions levied against the organization by the NPHC Judicial Board. Any organization found to be in violation of levied sanctions will be subject to review by the NPHC Judicial Board.

Section 8. Summer Events

All events held during the summer will be governed and regulated by the FSU-NPHC Executive board.

BY-LAWS

ARTICLE I- DUES

Section 1: Dues

Dues of the National Pan-Hellenic Council at the Florida State University shall be $20.00 per active member per academic year. The set amount is payable no later than the second executive board meeting of the academic year.

A. All new members will be required to pay a $10.00 new member fee the semester they become a member of their respective organizations.

Section 2: If any organization has difficulty paying its dues it is the responsibility of that organization to make arrangements with the Treasurer.

Section 3: If a member organization does not pay it's dues by the second executive board meeting of a semester or make arrangements with the Treasurer, the organization will be fined $15.00 and it must be paid by the third executive board meeting.

Section 4: If the dues are not paid by the third business meeting, the organization will be placed on social probation until the dues are paid in full.

ARTICLE II- ALCOHOL POLICY

Greek letter organizations strive to ensure the safety to their members and guests, as well as to provide an opportunity for responsible social interaction. The Florida State University alcohol Policy serves to complement and require compliance with all federal, state, local, and university policies, and to provide parameters for the social events of Greek Letter organizations. The Greek system also expects alcohol education from their member chapters and recognizes abstinence from alcohol as a healthy choice for its members. The National Pan-Hellenic Council also recognizes the importance of chapter National Headquarters and their alcohol policies, and remind fraternities and sororities at Florida State University that they re responsible for following their respective national/international policies with risk management and alcohol as a supplement to the NPHC Alcohol Policy.

Section 1. Registration of Events

- A. All chapter social events where alcohol is present, both on or off campus, must be registered with the National Pan-Hellenic Council.
